Minor faults and damages can be easily spotted and
fixed when equipment is regularly
maintained.

That there is no
extra damage
apart from this
anticipated
depreciation of the machine

Even the cost of food wastage is decreased as the
scenario of wastage
due to poor machine
performance is eliminated.

The filters need
to be cleaned
regularly, or there may be a severe fire
hazard.

Avoid using soaps
containing citric acid with a pH under 6.

Avoid training
staff on the job.
Otherwise, they might be too
stressed to learn
effectively.

Try not to leave wet
cast iron pans or other metallic
utensils on stainless steel appliances for long periods as this will encourage rust.

Most catering
equipment is made of stainless steel
because it's resistant to corrosion and
oxidation
